

Ethical & Social Issues in Information Technologies
Student Presentations
Department of Computer Science, University of Pisa
May 6th-7th, 2020

Wednesday, May 6th, h. 16.15-18.00

Introduction by Vincenzo Gervasi and Fabio Fossa [h. 16:15-16:25]

Session 1: Ethics & the Machine [h. 16:25-17:05]

Sirio Papa - Superintelligence: when rules and life become synonymous.

Sara Bertoldo - Can we allow AI to lack ethical sensitivity?

Diletta Goglia - The AI (In)Justice League.

Riccardo Massidda - The eXplanation necessity.

Short Coffee Break [h. 17.05-17:10]

Session 2: Algocracy [h. 17.10-17.50]

Marco Cardia - Impact of recommendation systems on social opinions.

Bashir Gavrilov - Political manipulation through data analysis.

Riccardo Manetti - Does the AI choose for us?

Matteo Massetti - Big Data and democracy.

Closing Remarks [h. 17.50-18.00]

Thursday, May 7th, h. 11.15-13.00

Session 3: (Dirty) Talks – Social Robotics & AI [h. 11:20-12:00]

David Berei - Conversational agents.

Silvia Corbara - Dirty bits: how sex robots will be processed.

Haris Dukic - Sex Robots.

Marco Petix - Self Delusion and Anthropomorphism.

Coffee Break [12:00-12:10]

Session 4: Machine Art [12:10-12:40]

Peter Agoston - AI Artists: creative agents or sophisticated tools?

Matteo Montagnani - A machine is not an artist.

Jessica Sartori - Can machines make art?

Discussion and Closing Remarks [12:40-13:00]